MOTION TO REMAND CASE TO ARBITRATION

Comes now the Defendants, through their counsel Mark T. Freeman, and respectfully request that this Court remand this case for arbitration. The Plaintiffs entered into an agreement with the Defendants and within that agreement there was an arbitration provision. A copy of those arbitration provisions are attached as an exhibit. That agreement states that binding arbitration will be the method by which the parties resolve their disputes. Therefore, the Defendants respectfully request that this court remand this case to the parties so that arbitration proceedings can begin.

Respectfully Submitted,
